INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Management of

Nansen Dialogue Centre, Skopje

We have audited the Financial Report of the project entitled "Implementation of the Concept for intercultural education", (hereinafter: the 'Project'), for the period from 1 January 2020 to 31 December 2020, project number MAK–16/0003. The financial report has been prepared by management of Nansen Dialogue Centre, Skopje (hereinafter: the Grant Recipient or the Organization) pursuant to the Grant Agreement signed between the Grant Recipient and the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs (hereinafter: the Contracting Authority).

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Report

Management is responsible for the preparation of the financial report in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the Grant Agreement, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing¹. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report is free from material misstatement. An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation of the financial report in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

¹ International Standards on Auditing ("ISA") issued by the International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board (IAASB), which are in effect from 15 December 2009, translated and published in Official Gazette of RM no. 79 from 2010.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial report of the Grant Recipient, regarding the project entitled "Implementation of the Concept for intercultural education", for the period from 1 January 2020 to 31 December 2020, is prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with the financial reporting provisions of the Grant Agreement.

Restriction on Distribution and Use

The financial report is prepared to assist the Grant Recipient, to comply with the financial reporting provisions of the Grant Agreement referred to above. As a result, the financial report may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report is intended solely for the Grant Recipient and the Contracting Authority and should not be distributed to or used by parties other than the Nansen Dialogue Centre, Skopje, or the Norwegian Ministry of Foreign Affairs.
